24 Discovery.

Counsel for the defendant requests time to review the discovery and discuss it with his client prior to a preliminary hearing or indictment. Additionally, the parties are discussing a pre-indictment resolution that may resolve the matter without a preliminary hearing.

- 2. This continuance is not sought for purposes of delay, but to allow defense counsel an opportunity to review discovery with their client and prepare for the preliminary hearing.
 - 3. The defendant is not detained and agrees to the continuance.
- 4. Both counsel for the defendant and counsel for the government agree to the continuance.
- 5. Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1(d) provides that a magistrate judge may extend the time limits in Rule 5.1(c) with the defendant's consent and upon a showing of good cause taking into account the public interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases. Because the defendant requires time to review discovery with their client prior to the preliminary hearing, good cause exists to extend the time limits in Rule 5.1(c).
- 6. The time from December 28, 2020, to the new preliminary hearing date will be excludable under the Speedy Trial Act, Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7) (A), which provides that the Court may exclude time arising from a continuance upon finding that the ends of justice served by granting the continuance outweigh the best interests of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial.
- 7. Denial of this request could result in a miscarriage of justice, and the ends of justice served by granting this request outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial.
